MESSAGE FROM LILI-ANNA PEREŠA, C.Q.

President and Executive Director of Centraide of Greater Montreal

To all our Major Donors,

I would like to start with a huge thank you! In 2018, the members of the Circle, which you are all part of, made an exceptional contribution to the success of the Centraide of Greater Montreal campaign. You donated $14.7 million, which is a 14% increase from 2017 and represents 26% of the annual campaign!

I am more than grateful for your outstanding generosity. The momentum that Stephen Bronfman, Mitch Garber and Lino Saputo, Jr. created by offering to match all new Circle members' donations was tremendous. We saw a record number of new Major Donors join those who generously renewed their donations. Bravo, gentlemen!

Collaboration is at the heart of Centraide of Greater Montreal's mission, and as I see new volunteers getting involved in the Major Donors' Cabinet, I know that our shared solidarity is alive and well. You have shown your commitment to Greater Montreal and the trust you place in Centraide's social expertise.

Together, we can show our local love by fighting poverty and social isolation to make Greater Montreal fairer and stronger.

From the bottom of my heart, thank you!

MESSAGE FROM ISABELLE MARCOUX

Chair of the Board, Transcontinental Inc. and Chair of the Major Donors' Circle

Dearest colleagues,

This directory concludes my first year as Chair of the Major Donors' Circle, and what a year it has been! It contains the names of all the Major Donors who have contributed generously to making the Circle's 2018 campaign a great success, and I want to thank each and every one of them.

I've had the chance to collaborate with a team of nearly 70 volunteers, who worked tirelessly to share their reasons for placing their trust in Centraide with the business community. I also want to highlight the (contagious!) generosity of Stephen Bronfman, Mitch Garber and Lino A. Saputo Jr., who offered to match new Major Donors' donations for up to $1,000,000!

One hundred and fifty new Major Donors answered this call and checked 'yes' to join the Circle. Together, new and long-term Major Donors collected $14.7M to support Centraide and help break the cycle of poverty and social exclusion in Greater Montreal.

These remarkable results encourage me to continue to push the Circle's limits even further! I look forward to seeing you again for the 2019 campaign so that together we can build an even stronger, fairer and safer Greater Montreal for everyone.

Thank you so much!

JIM HEWITT

Chairman of the Board, Hewitt Foundation

“ When it comes to supporting Centraide and its mission, for many years the employees of Hewitt Equipment have shown an enduring and contagious enthusiasm to not only meet their Centraide campaign goals, but to exceed them. So, when the company was sold, it was important for us to continue to keep giving back to those regions which contributed to our success; the communities of Eastern Canada. Considering Centraide’s impressive ability in recruiting a network of volunteers and its conscientious governance, it was a natural choice when it came to the Hewitt Foundation’s 2018 Leadership Challenge investments. In the spirit of sustaining the momentum of our employees inspiring example, we want to convey to others the great trust we have in Centraide, an organisation where every dollar is reinvested carefully.

HUGO LAROCHELLE AND HIS SPOUSE, ANGÈLE ST-PIERRE, WITH THEIR CHILDREN, MADELEINE, MARILOU, ÉVELYNE, AND MÉLIE—AND THEIR DOG, BABOUNE

Research scientist and Lead, Google Brain team in Montreal

“ When I went to university, I was lucky enough to choose an area that happened to really be taking off: artificial intelligence. I had mentors like Yoshua Bengio and Geoffrey Hinton who pushed me further than I ever thought I'd go. I took part in a TechAide event, a Centraide initiative for the tech community, and it made me want to offer others the chance to benefit from the knowledge and experience of mentors like I had, in a conference setting, that would be free for students—and affordable for others—while generating benefits which would keep growing in Greater Montreal. I sincerely believe that the tech community can take on a leadership role and inspire other groups to find creative ways to give back to our community.

L. JACQUES MÉNARD C.C., G.O.Q., C.O.M., LL.D. WITH MICHÈLE THIBODEAU-DEGUIRE

President Emeritus, BMO Financial Group, Quebec and winner of the Michèle Thibodeau-DeGuire Award.

During the cocktail celebrating Major Donors in December 2018, L. Jacques Ménard received the Michèle Thibodeau-DeGuire Award, presented annually to a volunteer for the outstanding quality of their commitment to Centraide. Ms. Thibodeau-DeGuire, alongside her colleagues and friends, highlighted his unwavering commitment as well as all the generosity he has shown over his many years of sharing his knowledge and experience for everyone's benefit. During the event, Mr. Ménard pointed that “It's easy to walk through the great city of Montreal and not see the challenges that youth and families are facing. That's why we have to give back to the community in any way we can. Volunteering is not an obligation but a way of life!”

DANIEL ASSOULINE AND HIS DOG, GLITTER

Chief Executive Officer, Adaware

“ There was a time when one of my relatives needed help. When I saw the wave of assistance that was made available to her, originating in the Montreal community that I consider my home, I promised myself that I would give back. That’s what Centraide represents for me: coordinated actions that can restore people’s dignity when they’re caught up in issues related to poverty or exclusion, empowering them to become more independent. It also means I’m entrusting my donation to professionals who are actively analyzing what’s going on in the field, people I can trust will reinvest the money where the need is truly greatest.

KIRON AND RINKU MONDAL

Managing Director, Global Investment Banking, RBC Capital Markets

“ For our family, making a commitment to Centraide is about being responsible and efficient as a way to give back while bringing joy into our community. We like to say that “help is only helpful when it is really helping.” That’s how Centraide approaches things: you’re investing in an organization that sows the seeds in the right places to ensure the value of the investment keeps growing. Some of our neighbourhoods face serious challenges, and we can and must make a difference! We aren’t just responsible for how we live our own lives; we’re responsible for contributing to the evolution of our community. As individuals we are responsible to bring joy to others and Centraide supports agencies that show our human side—that offer help and compassion to more vulnerable people, and highlight how everyone has something worthy to contribute, even those who may think they have nothing. Joy is within each of us.

Managing Director, Investment Banking, National Bank Financial

“ Philanthropic engagement is one of the most precious values that I was taught from a young age. In turn, I hope to pass on the importance of giving back to the community to my niece and nephews, who are so fortunate to live in this city! I have travelled a great deal, but I always end up coming to the same conclusion: I love Montreal. It’s my city and I’ll always have a special attachment to it that inspires me to stand behind anything local—including philanthropy! We enjoy a social fabric that most other cities in the world do not and that we should be proud of. And to me, Centraide embodies all of this: the will to empower each and everyone to seize new opportunities, and an unwavering mission to break the cycle of poverty.

“ One thing I’ve learned after many years of working with charities is the importance of being sensitive. Sensitive to our environment, sensitive to the people around us and, especially, sensitive to people who are going through a rough time in their life. My colleagues and I are privileged to have jobs we love with major companies, but not too far away there are people who are struggling to find adequate housing, or to feed their families. Poverty is widespread; it’s even in neighbourhoods where you would least expect it. Donating to Centraide means you can be confident that every issue will be thoroughly and carefully analyzed, so that needs are met where they’re most acutely felt.

PIERRE CORRIVEAU

Architect, FRAIC

“ I know I have been privileged. I was born in a prosperous country, into a well-to-do family... and I had parents who taught me early on that living as we did wasn't exactly common. But the most valuable gifts my parents gave me were an education and an open-minded perspective, which helped open my eyes to the inequalities that still prevail in our society. This is why I have chosen to donate a portion of my estate to Centraide. By doing this, I can be assured that my legacy will be reinvested fairly throughout our community according to the needs of each region, hoping this philanthropic contribution can help to decrease social disparity.

The Centraide of Greater Montreal Foundation.

The mission of the Centraide of Greater Montreal Foundation is to amass and grow permanent funds from bequests, life insurance policies, endowed funds and retirement plans. All net proceeds flow to Centraide of Greater Montreal on an annual basis.

Centraide would like to express our deep thanks to all those who made a gift to the Centraide of Greater Montreal Foundation between 2007 and 2018.

“

I've had a happy life! I was well surrounded, I studied to be a notary and had a career that I loved, for 40 years, with a multicultural clientele that was very dear to me. Even though a childhood disease left me without the use of my legs, I didn't let that hold me back. With the support of many organizations that helped me at different times in my life, I was able to move forward. Now it's my responsibility and my duty to give back to future generations so that others can have the same chance that I had—a chance to succeed!

– Gerald Friedlansky 1937-2018
